Accommodation request

The Presbytery Clerk has received a request for accommodation for a minister who is visiting Edinburgh on a five-week sabbatical (Visiting Fellow). He has registered with Dr Brown at the University of Edinburgh, Faculty of Divinity and arranged to do some research with Graham Maule and the Wild Goose Resource Team in Glasgow. The sabbatical begins September 16 and ends October 18, 2019.

He has asked if any residences might have a spare room they could rent to him for the five-week period. We're asking if you can reach out to your congregations, and if anyone thinks they would be able to extend a welcome to him, please contact the Presbytery Clerk and we can arrange correspondence and references.

Get ready for Fairtrade Fortnight

A lot of us enjoy chocolate treats over the festive season. But more often than not, we don't think about the people who grow the cocoa. That's why for next year's Fairtrade Fortnight, launching on 25 February 2019, They are shining a spotlight on the crisis in the world's cocoa industry.

Cocoa farmers typically work gruelling days, yet earn insufficient money to provide the basics for their families or give opportunities to their children. The world cocoa price has collapsed, making farmers even poorer than before. and women carry the greatest burden.

Take a look at the She Deserves a Living Income campaign, featuring women farmers who grow the cocoa for the chocolate we love.
