Raising funds for Guild Projects

Forth Valley Chorus sings a wide range of a cappella music embracing styles from jazz to contemporary music classics in a barbershop style. Led by David Sangster, a solicitor by day, and musical director by night.

The chorus competes regularly and recently gained international success in New Orleans in the Sweet Adelines International Barbershop competition. They are proud to have achieved 10th place in the world, the first time a UK chorus has been placed in the top ten. In May, they hope to repeat their success of recent years when they compete in the Sweet Adelines National Competition in Cardiff.
